Macomb County Library hosts storytelling program

CLINTON TOWNSHIP, Mich. – Macomb County families are invited to take a journey to the four corners of the world through the spellbinding storytelling of Lois Sprengnether-Keel.

It may be cold outside, but inside the library, Sprengnether-Keel will take families on a wonderful adventure to faraway lands. The journey begins at 1 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 24.

This program, recommended for children ages 5-12, is free and open to the public, but seating is limited and registration is required. For reservations or more information, call the Macomb County Library at 586-286-6660.

The Macomb County Library is located at 16480 Hall Road (near Garfield). The library is open 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Monday through Thursday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Friday and Saturday, and 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. Sunday from September through May. Click on www.macombcountylibrary.org for dates and times of additional programs.

The Macomb County Library and its many programs and services are a public service of the Macomb County Board of Commissioners.
